14	* Q8 – x 1 parent advised they had no experience of this and so left the question blank.   Q9 – x 3 parents advised they had no experience of this and so left the question blank. 97% of all responses were in the 'agree' or better columns, except from one parent communicating disappointment in the level of information gained from the school. This is despite more communication and information than ever before, including:- half termly class newsletters, weekly school wide newsletters, regular text messaging, weekly Friday assemblies, parent workshops, staff on yard (including HT/DH) every morning and afternoon, IEP meetings; updated website with all school events and policies on, parents evenings etc. Some positive responses include;  "An excellent standard throughout the school.", "Always excellent activities during the year in projects and performances.", "We are really happy with the school. They always helped us, even when we were experiencing difficulties at home. They always put our child first and explain everything.", "Thank you for helping our child to settle into school life, he loves it!", "We are extremely pleased with how our child has settled. Daily and weekly letters keep us updated." And "Fantastic school in all areas."
