Christmas Fayre

Another big thank you to everyone involved in our Christmas Fayre last week. We have already raised £1,500, with more money still to come in! Well done to everyone!

Picture Frames

Do you have any old picture frames that you no longer want? We need some more picture frames to continue our 'gallery' of children's work, so if you would be willing to donate any we will be very grateful!

Brewhouse Festive Family Fun Day

Saturday 8th December, 10am-1pm

£7.50 per child or £12 for two siblings. Adults are free!

A family friendly festive funday! Come and marvel at our handmade decorations and forest of Christmas trees and then create your own gifts, treats and baubles with the help of our team of elves' and fairies. We'll have stories around the "fireplace" and a whole host of hands on yuletide activities and treats, we even have a special visit from the main-man himself! Come and join us for a perfect Christmas themed morning.

Christmas Crafts

Thank you to the parents who were able to come to Christmas Crafts this afternoon. All the children had a lovely afternoon, with some wonderful creations being produced! Well done everyone!

Well done children! Let's aim for 100% next week, when we have our Christmas performances!

Enterprise Club

Enterprise club have been working extremely hard to make a wide variety of products to sell at the Christmas Fair. This included snow globes, book marks, photo booth packs, Christmas pudding digestives, Mars Bar cars, Christmas Eve bags, sweet cone bags and hot chocolate packs. In total the children made £180 and have decided to buy some reading for pleasure books for KS2. A massive well done to the team!

Crossing Patrol

As you will already know, Staffordshire will not be funding Mrs Bailey's role as Crossing Patrol. If you would like to support her role and to help keep the patrol, please register your views on the school crossing patrol at <https://www.staffordshire.gov.uk/education/schoolsandcolleges/SchoolCrossing/SchoolCrossingPatrols.aspx>

Train to Teach

with The John Taylor SCITT

We are working with John Taylor High School, who recruit and train primary and secondary teachers locally.
