Crossing Patrol

We have received great news this week – the County Council have decided they are not going to stop the funding for Crossing Patrols after all. That is great news for our children and the other Staffordshire schools, and of course for Mrs Bailey!

Young Voices

The junior children had a fantastic time at Young Voices on Tuesday! We arrived at the Resorts World Arena at 1pm, then the rehearsal began at 2.15pm. The children practiced until just after 5pm then had a well-earned break.

The concert commenced at 7pm, and it included lots of songs from the 6,000 strong choir, dance routines from Urban Strides, and performances from Sharlene Hector, Beau Dermott and Tony Hadley! We even had a special recorded message from Hugh Jackman before we sang 'The Greatest Showman Medley'.

We are so proud of the children, they were wonderful all day, making the most of an amazing opportunity. Thank you to the staff for looking after the children all day, and to the parents for your support!
