Keep Anslow Tidy – Art Competition

As part of our on-going work with Anslow Gardening Guild, we would like the children to take part in an art competition.

The theme for the competition is 'Keep Anslow Tidy'. The children are invited to create a picture or poster on A4 paper. They can use any materials or style.

We would like finished entries to be handed in to school by Friday the 5th June.

SATs Week

A reminder that SATs week for Year 6 starts on Monday.

Please make sure the children are in school on time every day so that the tests can start on time and without disruption.

Thank you.

Key Stage 1 Football Festival

Well done to the children who took part in the Football Festival at Burton Albion today.

The children had a great time, taking part in a wide range of football games, skills and activities.

Thank you to the Parents for taking the children to the event and to Miss Twells for helping at the festival.
