

Half Term

From everyone at school, have a great half term! We wish the children a happy and safe week and we look forward to seeing everyone back on Monday 26 February.

School disco

A big 'thank you' to all the parents and staff for helping at the disco last night. The children had a fantastic time and we raised valuable funds for school.

Bag Packing – Saturday 17th March

A reminder we have managed to secure a bag packing day at Waitrose in Uttoxeter to raise money for new books for school. If you can come along to help pack some bags we will be very grateful! We are sure the children will enjoy it Letters have gone out via Parent Mail but there are spares in the office.

Burton Albion Player Visit

We were visited this week by Liam Boyce and Harry Campbell from Burton Albion. The children asked some brilliant questions, with a particular focus on diet and healthy living from Class 5. Thank you to Burton Albion Community Trust for bringing the players to school.
