2023-2024

Guidance and Expectations for Poetry

Planning

Each year group is allocated three types of poetry to learn throughout the year. You should add these to the English planning overview where they best make sense and link to topics. When planning a unit of poetry, you should refer to the key objectives for each key stage as well as the specific details of each poetry type.

Key Objectives

EYFS

- To listen, and respond to, a range of poetry around a theme.
- To look at rhyme within poems.
- To collect words that rhyme.

KS1

- To learn and recite favourite poems, taking account of punctuation.
- To comment on aspects such as word combinations, sound patterns (rhymes, rhythms, alliterative patterns) and forms of presentation.
- To identify and discuss favourite poems and poets, using appropriate terms (poet, poem, verse, rhyme etc.) and referring to the language of the poem.
- To use structures from poems as a basis for writing, by extending or substituting elements, inventing new lines, verses etc.

Poetry Curriculum

2023-2024

- To discuss choice of words and phrases which describe and create impact (adjectives, verbs etc.).
- To use similes, metaphors, personification.
- To discuss meanings of words and phrases that create humour, and sound effects in poetry (nonsense poems, tongue twisters, riddles).
- To use humorous verse as a structure for children to write their own by adaptation, mimicry or substitution; to invent own language puzzles, jokes, nonsense sentences.
- To collect suitable words and phrases in order to write poems and short descriptions; design simple patterns with words, use repetitive phrases; write imaginative comparisons.
- To invent calligrams and a range of shape poems, selecting appropriate words and careful presentation.
- To write poetry that uses sound to create effects (e.g. onomatopoeia, alliteration, distinctive rhythms).
- To choose and prepare poems for performance choosing appropriate expression, tone, volume and use of voices and other sounds.
- To rehearse and improve performance.
- To write new and extended verses for performances based on models of 'performance' and oral poetry, e.g. rhythms, rhymes.
- To write poems based on personal or imagined experience, linked to poems read,
- To understand the use of figurative language in poetry and prose; compare poetic phrasing with narrative/descriptive examples.
- To locate use of similes.
- To identify different patterns of rhyme and verse in poetry, e.g. choruses, rhyming couplets, alternate line rhymes.
- To understand the following terms and identify them in poems (verse, chorus, couplet, stanza, rhythm, rhyme, alliteration).
- To describe how a poet does or does not use rhyme.
- To produce polished poems through revisions.

KS2

2023-2024

- To understand the following terms and identify them in poems: verse, chorus, couplet, stanza, rhythm, rhyme, alliteration.
- To describe how a poet does or does not use rhyme.
- To produce polished poems through revisions.
- To analyse and compare poetic style, use of forms and the themes of significant poets; to respond to shades of meaning; to explain and justify personal tastes; to consider the impacts of full rhymes, half rhymes, internal rhymes and other sound patterns.
- To investigate and collect different examples of word play.
- To convey feelings, reflections or moods in a poem through the careful choice of words and phrases.
- To write metaphors from original ideas or from similes.
- To understand terms which describe different types of poems, e.g. ballad, sonnet, rap, elegy, narrative poem and identify typical features.
- To discuss how linked poems relate to one another by themes, format and repetition, e.g. cycle of poems about the seasons.
- To describe and evaluate the style of an individual poet.
- To comment critically on the overall impact of a poem, showing how language and themes have been developed.
- To write their own poems experimenting with active verbs and personification.
- To recognise how poets manipulate words: for their quality of sound (rhythm, rhyme, assonance); for their connotations; for multiple layers of meaning; nonsense words and how meaning can be made of them; where the appeal lies.
- To analyse how messages, moods, feelings and attitudes are conveyed in poetry.
- To read and interpret poems in which meanings are implied or multi-layered.
- To write a sequence of poems linked by theme or form, e.g. a haiku calendar.
